home of Mrs. F. Theo. Millet on Tuesday, Dec. 9th, at which time and place the barrel will be packed.

I wish to thank the many friends who visited us at the parsonage, this week through your paper.
We were agreeably surprised Thanksgiving eve as the weather was very inclement, to have a party of friends visit us with many good things. In fact the pounding we received continued for several days by members of both Westville and Macedonia churches. We feel profoundly grateful for the many kind expressions. J. C. WALKER.

FOOLS A FOUL PLOT.

When a shameful plot exists between liver and bowels to cause distress by refusing to act, take Dr. King's New Life Pills, and end such abuse of your system. They gently compel right action of stomach, liver and bowels, and restore your health and all good feelings. 25c at all druggists.

MARRIAGES.

WALTON-ENOS.

Mr. Harmon Walton of Clifton Forge, Va., and Miss Marion V. Enos, the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Enos, of Traders, were quietly married at the East Mathews Parsonage by Rev. J. A. Winn on last Thursday and left the same day on their honeymoon.

The groom is a prosperous merchant of Clifton Forge and the newly-weds will reside in that town.

MAPP-GREEN.

On Monday, Dec. 2d, at 7 P. M. suffering from chills and fever for quite awhile, but is much improved at this writing.

Mr. G. W. Atherton will leave in a few days for Baltimore to select his Christmas stock. We are in hopes he will bring Santa Claus when he returns.

We were greatly surprised Thanksgiving morning when we awoke and found the pretty trees and fall tinted leaves covered with snow. The people were behind the time picking their white turkeys.
